

Palm Springs, California A Spectacular Glass Experience

On this trip we will visit Art Palm Springs on opening night. The eclectic art displayed includes paintings, glass, ceramics, & sculptures in metal & glass. The show will be open throughout our stay, enabling you to visit several times.

We will also visit The Palm Springs Art Museum, a stunning building with a lovely mountain backdrop. The Museum features an exhibit of David Kaplan & Glenn Ostergaard's collections, as well as glass from other local collections. The Museum Store is one of the finest in the USA.

We will be attending an exhibition at Austin Art Projects. David Austin's Gallery has glass from many of the world's top glass artists, including Karen Lamonte, Ginny Ruffner, Oben Abright, Nicholas Africano, to mention a few.

We will have an opportunity to view the Kaplan/Ostergaard collection in their home, along with other world class collections in the Desert area.

Paul Messink has invited us to see his art, along with others in several media, at the Coachella Art Center in Indio.

Our last morning we will have a before opening opportunity to visit CODA gallery on El Paseo in Palm Desert. We will also be able visit the shops & galleries along El Paseo (the Rodeo Drive of the Desert.)
